About Us

Started our journey from 2020 with online classes and we actively operate in 2 offline branches and online classes. We have given performances at various temples and other regions in South India. Our students have participated in many competitions and bagged prizes.

Our only aim is to take forward the Indian culture and devote our time to the lord through this beautiful art form. We aim to provide quality training and do not compromise on our values. Both practical and theoretical aspects are covered in our teachings.

Offline classes are conducted at our branches tarnaka and saket, online batches are available in the morning as well as evening for all ages and levels.
